

Love Again

We the Kings

You tie your words around my neck
And now it's getting tighter
And we go at it like a
Demon swingin' at a fighter

When we're together we're like
Fire burning underwater
We're spittin' poison, drippin' sweat
And now it's getting hotter

Oh yeah, can we love again, love again
Till the sun comes up again
Oh yeah, can we love again, love again
Till the sun comes up again

Can we love again
Can we love again
Can we love again
Can we love again
Can we love again

You push me farther
Work it harder than I've had it ever
Before we finish breaking up
We're getting back together

You got me good I got it bad
I wanna feed that fire
And I'm a sucker for the pain
No one can hurt me better

Oh yeah, can we love again, love again
Till the sun comes up again
Oh yeah, can we love again, love again
Till the sun comes up again

Can we love again
Can we love again
Can we love again
Can we love again
Can we love again

Hey, hey, hey, wooh
Hey, hey, hey, wooh
Hey, hey, hey, wooh
Hey, hey, hey

Oh yeah, can we love again, love again
Till the sun comes up again
Oh yeah, can we love again, love again
Till the sun comes up again

Can we love again?
Can we love again?
Can we love again?
Can we love again?
Can we love again?

Can we love again?
Can we love again?
Can we love again?
Can we love again?
