

Runaway

We the Kings

Why don't you talk to me
Something's wrong I can see
Save the lies I won't believe
You can be honest, you can be honest with me

So come on and run away with me
You are the only thing I need
You are my lungs, my air, the oxygen I breathe
So come on and run away with me

You're hiding things you'll never show
You're showing things that you don't know
More than hope I still believe
That you are the honest, you are the honest in me

So come on and run away with me
You are the only thing I need
You are my lungs, my air, the oxygen I breathe
So come on and run away with me

When you finally find
The words to say
Will I be there
To lift your weight
So you don't sink inside yourself again

And with these hands
I will build you up
To break you down
To show you love
So you don't have to be the one to run away

So come on and run away with me
You are the only thing I need
You are my lungs, my air, the oxygen I breathe
So come on and run away with me

Come on and run away with me
So come on and run away with me
