

Conductor

We Were Promised Jetpacks

It's just a come back
Another come back
Far too orchestrated
Far too calculated
A conductor
Just our conductor
Pointed me
And hear me speak

Cause I'm a conductor
A simple conductor
With electricity just
Pouring through me
You're a habit
Another bad habit
Keep biting my nails in case
All else fails
For us

You are a fine wine
Another fine fine wine
Appointing in me
And hear me speak

You're a conductor
A simple conductor
With electricity just
Pouring through me

With electricity...
Pouring through me
