

I Owe It To My Heart

Webb Pierce

I wonder if you'll be the tie
To make me wanna cry each night
I'll never know unless we make a start

Why should I be afraid to try?
You'll either make me laugh or cry
I've got to know, I owe it to my heart

Will you walk in my heart today?
Then tomorrow run away
And in our love without a chance to start

If I should win or I should lose
It's up to you for I can't choose
I've got to know, I owe it to my heart

I owe it to my heart
To find the happiness that can't be mine
And you're the best way I know how to start

Will your kisses last like gold
Or all at once will they grow cold?
I've got to know, I owe it to my heart

Will you walk in my heart today?
Then tomorrow run away
And in our love without a chance to start

If I should win or I should lose
It's up to you for I can't choose
I've got to know, I owe it to my heart
