

What Good Will It Do

Webb Pierce

I'd forgive you but what good would it do
One can't make up though our love it takes two
Oh you can't keep up a home with the heart that once do wrong
I'd forgive you but what good would it do
I'd come back dear but what good would it do
We would have those same old fights to go through
And as much rather be dead than to hear those words you said
I'd forgive you but what good would it do
I still love you but what good will it do after all I can't tell you what to do
We are formed of certain wish dear and that's the way we stay
I'd forgive you but what good would it do
I could blame you but what good would it do
One can't make up though our love it takes two
Oh you can't keep up a home with the heart that once do wrong
I'd forgive you but what good would it do
