

Captain

Ween

Captain, turn around and take me home
Captain, turn around and take me home
Captain, turn around and take me home
Captain, turn around and take me home
Captain, turn around and take me home
Captain, turn around and take me home
Captain, turn around and take me home
Captain, turn around and take me home
Captain, turn around and take me home

(Mutated slow voice says at the end:)

(Blink at the knifelight)
(The water, it's cold like when)
(I kneel at Death's Gate)
(I am the bringer of the siege)
(Like a ground pig who awaits it's master)
(I live in a monument to a fallen soldier)
(Let me lie awake and condense this fog)
(Bring me to harbor)
(Bring me to harbor)
