Sorry Charlie

Things didn't work out the way you had planned it. Things fell apart at the seams. ??

And now you're cold and sleepy. Chirst (?), how did it come to this? Hold on to those you thought were your loved ones They'll be the ones you miss.

And now you're standing at the station Tryin' to take what I ain't got to give. Oh and I'm so sorry Charlie I've got my own life to live

Just call your friends at college Wonder why you didn't stay And my boss is coming down soon Chuck He's drunk so you can't stay No, you can't stay

You did nothing to deserve this God didn't treat you swell Oh it all slipped through your fingers and it all seems so unfair

And your girlfriend, she's in high school She says she loves you a lot Oh no, she can't support you So you better sell more pot

And now you're standing at the station Tryin' to take what I ain't got to give. Oh and I'm so sorry Charlie I've got my own life to live

So you just call your friends at college Wonder why you didn't stay And my boss is coming down soon Chuck He's drunk and you can't stay No, you can't stay Sorry Charlie. Sorry Charlie. Oww!
