

Endless Night

Weeping Willows

Endless night
So afraid of the morning light
It will hurt a while but you'll be all right
I'm with you
You don't have to be afraid
Just try to sleep, I promise I'll stay
In the arms of the willow we're waiting for the daylight
I'll hold you throughout this endless night
You can't sleep `cause you think I'll go away
But your fear is leading you astray
Endless night
There's just the two of us
You're safe in my arms, so cry if you must
Don't you know?
The world's waiting down the stream
And in our dreams we might reach the sea
In the arms of each other we'll sail when it gets light
I'll hold you throughout this endless night
