

True To You

Weeping Willows

If you have ever had a broken heart
If you've been pushed aside with dreams all torn apart
Oh, then you must know that it's cold in the shadow of love...

Everytime I touch myself I wish it's you
Everytime I hurt myself I think of you
By lying to myself I am true
True to you, true to you

I'll be freezing in that shadow of love
I can't believe our only night could be enough
Oh, what can I do? Cause I'll never get over you...

Everytime I touch myself I wish it's you
Everytime I hurt myself I think of you
By lying to myself I am true
True to you, true to you

Everytime I touch myself I wish it's you
Everytime I hurt myself I think of you
I'm lying to myself
I'm lying to myself

I'm lying to myself but I'm true
I'm true to you, true to you
True to you, true to you
True to you, true to you
True to you, true to you
