Love Explosion

take a listen around you all the people that crowd around in your house, they've been wanting to kill you in your sleep take a load off and bow down to the others who love to call you their names they've been wanting to kill you in your sleep and all the bull that people sling it doesn't matter what they sing so jump out, jump out, get your groove on this one is for you so come on, get out yer house, girl, and give me a kiss take a load off and bow down to the others who love to call you their names they love to call you their names they love to call you their names

Weezer