

Love is the Answer

Weezer

There will come a day
When we transcend our pain
Until that day, take it easy on yourself

Love is the answer
Makes no difference what you have heard
Love is the answer
You have got to trust in the world

There will come a day
When we can finally rest
Until that day, take it easy on yourself

Love is the answer
Makes no difference what you have heard
Love is the answer
You have got to trust in the world

Brothers and sisters,
I know you try so hard sometimes
You're going to find your happiness inside

Love is the answer
Makes no difference what you have heard
Love is the answer
You have got to trust in the world

In the world
In the world
In the world
In the world
In the world
In the world

Love is the answer
You have got to trust in the world
