

QB Blitz

Weezer

All of my conversations die a painful death you see
I can't get anyone to do algebra with me, hehe
It's hard to make real friends
My friends have lots of friends
I don't hang out enough
Take drugs and learn to love

This intercom is broken into pieces
I gotta call my QB Blitz, B blitz
Out on the ice fields of Hoth
I'll be
I'll be missing you like oxygen (xygen)
(Whoah whoa x2)
I'll be missing you like oxygen

I wanna have the feeling someones in love with me, hehe
You gotta choose between the internet and me, hehe
People don't bring me joy
I think you get the point
I'm on an epic quest
Pursuit of happiness

This intercom is broken into pieces
I gotta call my QB Blitz, B blitz
Out on the ice fields of Hoth
I'll be
I'll be missing you like oxygen (xygen)
(Whoah whoa x2)
I'll be missing you like oxygen

Sing for the moment
Little place on the ocean
In the middle of a snowdrift
We're alone in the universe
Sing for the moment
With a paper lantern over the light
Sing for the moment

This intercom is broken into pieces
I gotta call my QB Blitz, B blitz
Out on the ice fields of Hoth
I'll be
I'll be missing you like oxygen (xygen)
(Whoah whoa x2)
I'll be missing you like oxygen
