I don't even know your name
No, I don't know the words to say
So I call you Anonymous
I don't even know your name
No, I don't know the words to say
So I call you Anonymous

Anonymous

So I thank you my love, thank you my friends
Look in the eyes of my enemy
It's all just a gift that I'm going to give to you

I don't even know your name
No, I don't know the words to say
So I call you Anonymous
I don't even know your name
No, I don't know the words to say
So I call you Anonymous

My anonymous, my anonymous
My anonymous, my anonymous

Now I know, know what to call you
Now I know, know what to call you
Now I know, know what to call you
Now I know, know what to call you

What to call you, what to call you
What to call you
