

The Girl Got Hot

Weezer

Woah woah woah

Went to a show last Saturday night
The band was doing their thing
The moshpit started, and then the crowd parted
And there was Kiki D

Knew this girl back in junior high school
When nobody gave her a look
Look at what we got, the girl got hot
Switched up and rewrote the book

Satin tights, boots so white
Leather handbag out of sight
What used to mean a little
Now means a lot
Oh my goodness me
The girl got hot

Woah woah woah

The first thing I did when I got up the nerve
Was say, "Hey baby, what's up?" (What up?)
She kept on dancing, refused my romancing
And that's when I fell in love

I stepped to the floor with her best friend Jill
And tried to thicken the plot
The thing I finally found with these other girls in town
She got hot, they did not

Satin tights, boots so white
Leather handbag out of sight
What used to mean a little
Now means a lot
Oh my goodness me
The girl got hot

Nah nah nah...

Leather tights, boots so white
Leather handbag out of sight (Out of sight)
Regal feather in her feathered hair
Dash of rouge, buyer beware
What used to mean a little
Now means a lot
Oh my goodness me
The girl got hot
