

Heart Without A Home

Westlife

Shane:

Girl I love to watch you
You're like candy to my eyes
Like a movie that you've seen but you gotta watch just one more time
But that smile you're wearing
It's a beautiful disguise
It's just something you put on to hide the emptiness inside
And you seem so lonely
But you don't have to any more

Chorus (Shane & Mark):

If you're a heart without a home
A rebel without a cause
If you feel as though you're always
Stranded on the shore
Like a thief in the night
Let me steal your heart away
Baby if for reasons
What you're looking for
I'll be yours
I'll be yours

Shane:

Ooooooh

Shane:

You need a new sensation
One you never had before
I got a feeling if I gave you some you'd probably want some more
Did you know that baby
You're the bluebird in my sky
I only wanna make you happy cause I'd love to see you fly
And if you feel lonely
You don't have to anymore

Chorus (Shane & Mark):

If you're a heart without a home
A rebel without a cause
If you feel as though you're always
Stranded on the shore
Like a thief in the night
Let me steal your heart away
Baby if for reasons
What you're looking for
I'll be yours
I'll be yours
I'll be yours

Mark:

I'll be the raft in the tide
(I'll be yours)
I'll be the truth in the light
(And what's more)
When no one opens the door

Shane:

I'll be the hope that you're looking for

Shane:

If you're a heart without a home
A rebel without a cause
If you feel as though you're always
Stranded on the shore
Like a thief in the night
Let me steal your heart away
Baby if for reasons
What you're looking for

Chorus (Shane & Mark):

If you're a heart without a home
A rebel without a cause
If you feel as though you're always
Stranded on the shore
Like a thief in the night
Let me steal your heart away
Baby if for reasons
What you're looking for
I'll be yours
I'll be yours
