

Love Crime

Westlife

Shane:

I didn't know what to say
Tried to look the other way
When I saw you there with him
Acting like I don't care
But you can read from how he's there
That I'm hurting deep inside
Ain't even though
You looked so good tonight
I'll be fine

All (Shane):

But I know that for you to be here without me by your side
It's a love crime
While you act so surprised
I can tell from the guilt in your eyes
It's a love crime
To me

Bryan:

Love never been good to me
Maybe it's just my destiny
To live my life alone
Who was I trying to fool
Thinking that love would break the rule
Still I'm standing on my own

Ain't even though
You look so good tonight
I'll be fine

All (Shane):

But I know that for you to be here without me by your side
It's a love crime
While you act so surprised
I can tell from the guilt in your eyes
It's a love crime
To me
It's a love crime

Mark:

Here I am now knowing
Tell me what to do

All:

But I know that for you to be here without me by your side
It's a love crime
While you act so surprised
I can tell from the guilt in your eyes
It's a love crime
To me
Don't you know that for you to be here without me by your side
It's a love crime
While you act so surprised
I can tell from the guilt in your eyes
It's a love crime
But I know that for you to be here without me by your side

It's a love crime
While you act so surprised
I can tell from the guilt in your eyes
It's a love crime
To me
