Wide Open

Westlife

Why do I try to hide These feelings deep inside? But tonight seems too long To live this life, all alone

I guess I'll have to wait
It's almost more than I can take
Is it written in the stars?
This kingdom in your eyes
This world could be ours

So letting go tonight
And handing you the knife

If you cut me wide open
There's a love here unspoken
A heart overflowing
Dreaming of your kiss

I'm standing here hoping
For the moment you say when
Touching your skin, giving
You kill me everytime
I would die for you

I could go on and pretend And play the fool again How can I just walk away From everything I feel When all I wanna say These scars'll never heal And they'll never go away

So cut me wide open There's a love here unspoken A heart overflowing Dreaming of your kiss

I'm standing here hoping For the moment you say when Touching your skin, giving You kill me everytime I would die for you...

There's no way to explain to you

Just cutting through my veins

I can't take it any longer

This feeling's getting stronger every day, yeah-ah

If you cut me wide open
There's a love here unspoken
A heart overflowing
Dreaming of your kiss

I'm standing here hoping For the moment you say when Touching your skin, giving You kill me everytime
I would die for you...

(Ooh-ooh)

I would die for you...
I would die for you...
I would die for you
