You Don't Know

(Bryan) Oh yeah yeah Yeah yeah yeah

Nobody knows me Yet everyone knows my name Some people judge me Not knowing that I'm the same

Thanks for the offer But I keep my old friends always But then I get lonely Counting the endless days

Are you here for me at all? Do you care for me at all? Well, this time now I know I ain't standing alone no more

Cos all I want is love Someone who can share the pain I feel And the eyes that stare Won't stare at me no more Cos all I need is time Time for me to open up and show The person I am The person You think you know You don't know You don't know

(Mark)
Some heartfelt emotion
Creeping from deep inside
Cause being this person
Is all I've got left to hide

Were you here from me at all? Did you care for me at all? Last time I was told I ain't standing alone no more

All I need is love Someone who can share the pain I feel And the eyes that stare Won't stare at me no more And all I need is time Time for me to open up and show The person I am The person J am The person you don't know You don't know

You don't know...
