

Eyes Wide Open

Wet Wet Wet

Blue skies, I see it in your eyes
I'm paralysed and caught in your web
You tell me true lies, you're telling new lies
I'm hypnotized, under your spell

And the pain comes, like the tears in my mind
And my heart cries, it's saying love is blind and I realise

With eyes wide open, you don't know what you're gonna find
When you're looking for yourself

With eyes wide open, I can see it's closing time
When you dream of someone else, in your life

Your world can warm the coldest heart
I'm haunted by the fires that burn
Whenever I hear your song

It makes the sweetest sound
But in my world it's cold as hell

And it hurts now, like the pain in your heart
And your world cries, it's saying love can't die and I realise

With eyes wide open, you don't know what you're gonna find
When you're looking for yourself

With eyes wide open, you can see it's closing time
When you dream of someone else, in your life

With eyes wide open, you don't know what you're gonna find
When you're looking for yourself

With eyes wide open, you can see it's closing time
When you dream of someone else, in your life
