

Heaven

Wet Wet Wet

She don't know
What she's started now
Velvet touch, words like a sharpened knife
That cuts me deep inside, deep inside
And I'm falling down

I'm hanging on every word I'm hearing
God only knows if she really means them
But it feels like Heaven (Feels like Heaven, don't you know)
It feels like Heaven now (Feels like Heaven, don't you know)

She don't care
Where she comes down
I'll be there, be there to lift her up

I'm hanging on every word I'm hearing
God only knows if she really means them
But it feels like Heaven (Feels like Heaven, don't you know)
It feels like Heaven now (Feels like Heaven, Heaven now)

It feels like Heaven (Feels like Heaven, don't you know)
It feels like Heaven now (Feels like Heaven, don't you know, do n't you know)

She don't know
What she's started now
I'll be there, be there to lift her up

I'm hanging on every word I'm hearing
God only knows if she really means them
But it feels like Heaven (Feels like Heaven don't you know)
It feels like Heaven now (Feels like Heaven, Heaven now)
It feels like Heaven (Feels like Heaven don't you know)
It feels like Heaven now (Feels like Heaven now)
