The Great Escape

Whatever It Takes

Time is now Stop asking how And living in past moments

A great escape
Missed opportunity
To break new ground

Rise To your feet

So you've made it out ok Picture perfect scenes With bitter endings

Cause while you sleep
And think "its safe to be me"
There is danger

You can't stop me from crumbling Underneath the weight You can't stop me from crumbling Pressure that I can't take

You can't and won't stop me
