

No Sides, No Enemies

While She Sleeps

We confide, they confuse, they resist, they refuse
We're the product of the fued
Where's the unity?
Defy the rules
We can decide for ourself
Deprived of truth
Where's the unity?
With nothing left to lose we're singing
No sides, no enemies
We're searching for a place where
We'll never be deceived

We'll win by understanding
Not reacting
It's my ship that's sinking
On our world, not theirs!

We'll lead the blind
Choose to read between the lines
Are you haunted by the future?
Are you afraid by the answers you need?
Are we loyal or have we fled?
The notes are dirty we will wage the debt

Sick of thinking what we could've been
Saving up to fund the better end
Sick of thinking what we could've been
Saving up to fund the future, the better end

Tied to blame for the pain inside
Sworn to change like the guilty on the line
No sides, no enemies,
We'll never be deceived
Tied to blame for the pain inside
Sworn to change like the guilty on the line
No sides, no enemies,
We'll never be deceived
Tied to blame for the pain inside
Sworn to change like the guilty, who lie to survive
No sides, no enemies,
I'm surrounded by the people I need

Don't take your time for granted
Don't chase your life away,
It's not coming back
Take what is yours
Demand it!
We're gripping tight at the reigns

Are you drowning in the shallows?
Are you to blame for your actions?
Carry the banner I hope you know
There's a world outside that could be yours

There's a world outside that could be yours
Where's the unity?
There's a world outside that could be yours

Where's the unity?
This is our protest song
You're not alone,
Where's the unity?
There's a life prescribed
But I want more
Raise your fist if your for it.
Raise your fist if your for it.
Raise your fist if your for it.
