

Your Evolution

While She Sleeps

This one's for the gutter rats and the underdogs
For the have and the have not's
For the sinking ships and the hopeless
Guilty are the filthy rich
For the broken homes for the debt
For the sick and the deadbeat
For the sleepwalking who think their living the dream

YOU'VE GOT NOTHING!

We are the souls who've been forgotten

This is a dead society
Built on sorrow, we'll beg steal or follow
Control, consume
What the fuck are we to do
We're being led to the slaughter

Pride, conviction, of a life, much to weak
We've been failed, by the system
Built to kill, they never listen

For freedom of speech, there's not much to be said
Cut off your tongue and stand instead
You might get answers from them

(Believe in nothing, but yourself)

Souls who've been forgotten
Sing this with me
How can we live in fear of a mystery that we'll never see?
Souls who've been forgotten, sing this with me

I put the bullet back in
Broadcast the reason
We won't suffocate
This is your evolution
Don't wait to be saved

Destroy, what destroys you
We've been captured
We've been branded
Our lives were the mad men slaughter
No future vision disorder
Don't look up, look forward

DESTROY WHAT DESTROYS YOU!

(Believe in nothing, but yourself)

Souls who've been forgotten
Sing this with me
How can we live in fear of a mystery that we'll never see?
Souls who've been forgotten, sing this with me

I put the bullet back in
Broadcast the reason

We won't suffocate
This is your evolution

I put the bullet back in
Broadcast the reason
