

Hiroshima

Whiplash

Flashback...Pearl Harbor attack
Incoming bombers, no way to fight back
Chaos...blood in the sand
The enemy is coming, the threat is Japan

It must fall to flame...Hiroshima fall to flame...Hiroshima

Fighters strike from the air
Machine gun fire, no time to prepare
Wounded ships have been sunk
People will say kamikaze's the one

One plane carries the bomb
Orders are given, the city is gone
Spreading flesh, it will burn Revenge has been taken and now the have learned
