

Insult To Injury

Whiplash

A fallen soldier takes a hit
And is left behind
Comrades boots across his back
Who masterminds the sneak attack

And of course the innocent
Is the One who pays the price

Insult to Injury
Insult to Injury

A knife will twist into the back the body hits the ground
And the culprits smiling face is looking upon the waste

The missing lone ingredient
Salt into the wound
Is an insult to the pride
You better put yourself respect aside
