

Revenge

Whiskeytown

Whatever happened to you, you've changed
And I'm still wrong
I know you wanted to stay so long
And I'm still alone
There were no secrets, there were no stories
There was no one around
There were no reasons, there was no questions
There is no point now
Whatever happened to you, you've changed
And I'm still wrong
I know you wanted to stay so long
And I'm goin' on
So tell me your secret
Did you wanna see me pull my guns?
So tell me your secret
There were no stories, nobody won
I'll give you a reason and I'll wage a war with a punch from yo ur face
I'll stand my guard, I'll give you a reason
You might see it, you might hate it
You might never know your name
So tell me a secret
Did you wanna see me pull my guns?
Tell me a secret
You gotta look me in the eye
Tell me a secret
I'll wage a war with [Incomprehensible]
And tell me a secret
How does it feel to be so lone?
How does it feel to be so lone?
Just say or cry
