Sit & Listen To The Rain

Whiskeytown

Sit around, dream away the place I'm from
Used to feel so much, now I just feel numb
I could go out tonight, but I ain't sure what for
Call a friend or two I don't know anymore

Sit and listen to the rain Sit and listen to the rain

Gonna ride down to the river where it runs Gonna watch TV and pray for decent reruns Sit around and dream away what I've become Used to feel so much, now I just feel dumb

Sit and listen to the rain Sit and listen to the rain

I'll never understand this emptiness
I'll never really try and understand, I guess
I'll never understand this emptiness
I'll never really try and understand,
Try and understand, I guess

Sit around, dream away the place I'm from Used to feel so much, now I just feel dumb Could go out tonight, but I ain't sure what for Call a friend or two I don't know anymore

Sit and listen to the rain Sit and listen to the rain
