

All You Really Have To Do

White Denim

Oh now hey, hey girl
You know I see you
You got my heart on a string
And you tug it so sweetly

Oh now here, here girl
Now tell me how I know you
They say that you like dancing
And how I like dancing, that's good

All you really have to do now
Is forget you're in the world
All you really have to do now
Is forget you're in the world

Oh now hey, hey girl
I could might love you
I'd do anything for you
If you said that you need me

Oh now here, here girl
Now tell me how I know you
They say that you like dancing
And how I like dancing, that's good

All you really have to do now
Is forget you're in the world
All you really have to do now
Is forget you're in the world

Oh, woah
Oh, woah
