

Everybody Somebody

White Denim

Everybody's somebody
Sometimes everybody's been we
If you're looking for something
But you're standing next to nothing that's greed
It ain't everything
When your thinking ain't working
Walk around, talking like a jerk and you'll see
You get lonely
But no matter how you spend it
It's hard not to be in it completely
For everything
That's why I think I better take my time
Before I make a decision
Better off down the line
Where I don't need your permission
Chew my words
I see my thoughts
And I hear my talk
But what do I know?
Everybody's somebody
Sometimes everybody's been we in everything
Why girls standing 'round thinking
'bout how much they drinking
What, maybe, is it costing
Oh you can fire me for mayor
You can purchase perfection
You can light up your evenings
You can hire protection
Just do your thing
Don't really need no why
That's why I think I better take my time
Before I make a decision
Better off down the line
Where I don't need your permission
