

Some Wild Going Outward

White Denim

Like a dog
Who's always losing
All he had
He's wandering in an older house it lived in
Some wild going outward
Into bouquets of days
He's out going wild now
He's going out wild

Someone wades into the river
In another someone's daytime
I'm going fishing for Uncle Jimmy
On another someone's dime
We'll just sit around thinking
Waiting for a thing to say
We get no sense of adventure
We just wait it all away

So nice of you to notice
They always like it when you bring
No one expected to know this
Since none of us have heard a thing

If I were you I'd be more careful
You never know who's listening
They seen you here or there on Sundays
They can't wait to hear you sing
They'll tell you you could play it safer
Could choose a job less burdening

But you know it's hot when you are warm
It's hot when you're cold
It's hot
It's fine if you know
It's alright if you know nothing's wrong
Don't turn on yourself
'Cause you got no reason to take the pain
A memory can't serve you well
If you always look at it the same way

It's hot when you are warm
It's hot when you're cold
It's hot
It's fine if you know
It's alright if you know nothing's wrong
Don't turn on yourself
'Cause you got no reason to take the pain
A memory can't serve you well
If you always look at it the same way

It's hot when you are warm
It's hot when you're cold
It's hot
It's fine if you know
It's alright if you know nothing's wrong
Don't turn on yourself
'Cause you got no reason to take the blame

A memory can't serve you well
If you always look at it the same way
