

Summer Didn't Change a Thing

White Lies

Counting down the days
But the rain won't leave my room
It's so heavy today
Promise to get away
But somehow we never do
And I know it won't change
Trying to clear my head
I don't wanna clear my love for you
I see it falling that way
Don't know how to say
That I don't know what to do
But I feel out of place

Summer didn't change a thing
And it all still hurts
Summer didn't change a thing
It'll always burn

It'll always hurt
Summer didn't change a thing
It'll always hurt
Summer didn't change a thing
Summer didn't change a thing
Summer didn't change a thing

Looking for a break
For the heat to heal my blues
Even if for a day
I told you I'm the same
You just said I'll see you soon
But you're not here today

Summer didn't change a thing
And it all still hurts
Summer didn't change a thing
It'll always burn

It'll always hurt
Summer didn't change a thing
It'll always hurt
Summer didn't change a thing
Summer didn't change a thing
Summer didn't change a thing

And I've got nothing to say
(Summer didn't change a thing)
And I've got nothing to do
(Summer didn't change a thing)
And I've got nothing to say
(Summer didn't change a thing)
And I've got nothing to do
(Summer didn't change a thing)
And I've got nothing to say
(Summer didn't change a thing)
And I've got nothing to do
(Summer didn't change a thing)
