

Company I Keep

White Rabbits

Now everyone's getting off
Ended up in such a... such a familiar phase
When it started
It was all so foreign to me
The company I keep

Who's taking sides?
Who keeps the lights on 'round here?
Now give me the line
And start explainin' to me how it is you sleep
Oh... the company I keep

Who you calling cheap?
Anyone can see that I paid through the nose
But some couldn't see that no one ever sees, that
The company I keep
No...

I don't mind mistakes
I go crawling back for anyone else's sake
I admit this association's bleak
The company I keep

So everyone shut your mouths, now
Sit back and watch it
Such a smile
What an awful thing for anyone else to see
I guess that's just the company I keep
No...

That's the company I keep
