

The Lady Vanishes

White Rabbits

Now that we're old and prouder than we should be
I hear you talkin but I don't see the need
Cuz we go around until the day we pass out

I pass your house when I walk home late at night
I stop to say hi but I'm not that polite
I don't know how we ended up in this town
It's true 'cause you know...

It takes no time at all
Just wait until tomorrow and you're gone
And I'll try to make things better than they seem
I'll trust me I know more than I may see, I know

Runnin' away from what was there to begin
Climb up the walls until they start to cave in Oh don't you tell me what you're thinking about
When it's true, 'cause you know...

It takes no time at all
Just wait until tomorrow and you're gone
And I'll try to make things better than they seem
I'll trust me I know more than I may see, I know
It takes no time at all
Just wait until tomorrow and you're gone, oh you're gone