

I Fought Piranhas

White Stripes

Well I hold the rope and I hold the sail
and I kept my papers
to keep from land in jail and I fought piranhas
and I fought the cold
there was noone with me
I was all alone

Well it's easter morning now and there's noone around so I unroll the cement and walk into the town
and I was all alone
and I fought piranhas

Well you know what it's like I don't got to tell you who puts up a fight walking out of hell now when you fought piranhas and you fought the cold there's nobody with you and you're all alone
