

Collide

Whitecross

Imagination plays with truth and lies
Deliberation, only good when love's alive
Only good, when love's alive

Oh how he waits, oh how he waits
Yes tonight he waits for you
Do you know he waits don't you walk away
He gave his life for you

If I start to daydream, it's because I'm all right
I'm only waiting for God to make it right
I have no talent, no gift to offer you
Oh, oh, oh, empty room
Empty rooms!

Oh how he waits, oh how he waits
Yes tonight he waits for you
Do you know he waits don't you walk away
He gave his life for you

Oh how he waits, don't you know he waits
Yes he took the pain for you
Do you know he waits, don't you walk away
He gave his life for you

When it seems that all is lost
You are close now count the cost
When your life and his collide
You will know there's hope inside
