

Rubberneck

Whitecross

Can't decide gonna ride the fence
Live a lie is my best defense
Never know, the way is hard to pick
People say I'm a rubber neck

Oh, it's not that I don't care

I do my best ain't that good enough
I do my share as much as anyone
Don't understand why it's got to be
The straight and narrow's not enough for me.

Oh, it's not that I don't care

Why, tell me why do I have to decide
I always hide behind my state of mind
So easy to hide

Another day without sacrifice
Another way I don't pay the price
Don't look at me when you lay the blame
Livin' holy's just another game

Oh, sometimes I don't care

Why do I need to decide
I hide behind the state of my mind
So easy to hide

Why, tell me why do I have to decide
I always hide behind my state of mind
So easy to hide
