

Without Your Love

Whitecross

Never try to hurt anyone.
I try to keep to myself.
I'm all business, no time for love.
Emotions gather dust on the shelf.

Fast dealin', no time for feelin'.
All is well, I'm grabbing my dream.
I work hard at building my kingdom.
I don't care what tomorrow will bring.

All I've ever dreamed of is right in front of my eyes.
Without your love, I have nothing.
Without your love, nothing will stand.
Without your love, I have nothing.
Without your love, I'm such a miserable man.

Living high, up on that hill.
Got it all, so I've been told.
I've built a kingdom of diamonds and gold.
At night, it all turns so cold.

Shade my eyes to all that's around me,
Except that star I've needed to reach.
To late, my fate now surrounds me,
For all I've gained, I couldn't keep.

I wonder why I've waited so long
To see if you're what I'm looking for.
All the time I've wasted is gone.
Will you be there if I open the door?
