

Lay Down Your Love

Whitesnake

Lay down your love
Lay down on me
Lay down your love
Lay down on me

All my life I've been alone, looking for somebody to call my own
It feels so good since I found you, you're my one and only dream come true
I can't stop this feeling, baby, feeling deep inside
I may be right, I may be wrong
But it feels so good cause you're the one

Lay down your love
Lay down on me
Lay down your love
Lay down on me

Through the dark and windy night, gonna hold you close when you feel alright
I'll never leave you by yourself, cause I want you baby, no one else
I can't stop this feeling, baby, feeling deep inside
I may be right, I may be wrong
But it feels so good cause you're the one

Lay down your love
Lay down on me
Lay down your love
Lay down on me
