Till the Day I Die

Whitesnake

When ice cold winds of winter Chill me to the bone, An' thoughts of summer breezes Turn my heart to stone That's when I need a hand to guide me, When it's more than I can bear A shoulder I can cry on, Someone to lead me there An' give me love, Give me love, Give me love Till the day I die, Till the day I die Slowly I awaken To the Weavers plan for me, To drift upon the waters Of my own uncertainty, To look for a companion Who will share my destiny, A guiding hand to understand An' walk to road with me An' give me love, Give me love, Give me love Till the day I die, Till the day I die I wanna be the master of my destiny, I never wanna crawl an' beg for no sympathy, When everything I have is yours, An' all I ask of you Is give me love. Give me love, Give me love Till the day I die, Till the day I die I never wanna be the first To show I'm down, But, I'm never gonna wear the frozen smile of a clown When everything I have is yours And all I ask of you Is give me love Give me love, Give me love Till the day I die, Till the day I die Give me love, Give me love, Give me love. Till the day I die

Give me love, Give me love, Give me love. Till the day I die Till the day I die...
