

Ain't Nobody

Whitney Duncan

You're mine, that's it
I ain't gonna let you forget
Blue eyed, honey bees
Keep buzzin' around me baby
Keep your eyes on me

I'm protecting what's mine
I'm possessing your love
I'm confessing right now
I'm never giving you up
I'm the woman you want
I'm the woman you need
It's easy to see
Ain't nobody love somebody
Like I know I love somebody
Baby that somebody's you know who
Yeah there ain't nobody love somebody
Like I know I love somebody
Can't nobody love you like I do

They can call
They can flirt
They can smile until it hurts
They can say, we won't last
But I got something to say about that

I'm protecting what's mine
I'm possessing your love
I'm confessing right now
I'm never giving you up
I'm the woman you want
I'm the woman you need
It's easy to see
Ain't nobody love somebody
Like I know I love somebody
Baby that somebody's you know who
Yeah there ain't nobody love somebody
Like I know I love somebody
Can't nobody love you like I do
And I do
Baby, I do love you

I'm protecting what's mine
I'm possessing your love
I'm confessing right now
I'm never giving you up
I'm the woman you want
I'm the woman you need
It's easy to see
Baby that somebody's you know who
Like I know I love somebody

And there ain't nobody love somebody

Oh there ain't nobody love somebody
Like I do
Ain't nobody
No there ain't nobody
And there ain't nobody
Like I do
