Whitney Houston

It's Fine Fine, Fine, Fine, Fine, Fine It's Alright Had a dream last night That the world stopped turning But your madness, it kept on Guess I wasn't too bright

And I really wasn't learning

That you wasn't doing it too

Should have seen it all along All those sweet, sweet kisses and those sweet red roses They convinced me that it was you I made you exclusive Now it's so conclusive

If you'd told me from the start that you're playing around it would have bee n fine It would have been fine Then I would have played too and I guess I would have had a good time If you'd told me from the start that you're playing around it would have bee n fine

Then I would have played too and I guess I would have had a good time

Something didn't feel right And I wish I knew it I just could not see your games I got respect for you And you put me through it Why would you bring me so much pain

I would stil love for you, 'cause I did adore you While my dogs would chew you out Tried to be so nice on those lonely nights But I should have figured you out

If you'd told me from the start that you're playing around it would have bee n fine It would have been fine Then I would have played too and I guess I would have had a good time I would have had a good time If you'd told me from the start that you're playing around it would have bee n fine It would have been you baby Then I would have played too and I guess I would have had a good time

Baby you're so fine You are the one that I saw You are so fine You're my... Oh you're mighty fine You're fine-fine, fine-fine, fine-fine, fine-fine You are the one that I love You're my... You're fine-fine, fine-fine, fine-fine, fine-fine, fine
