

Moment That You Came

Wide Mouth Mason

Bested by the worst of you I'm losing my thirst for you again
But I don't mind
Is all this empty clamour simply more than you can stand or is it me?
Was I so blind?
The moment that you came
You tried to get away
You're the first to leave today but it's early now Anyhow...
All you were to me
And all it could have been I'll forget about you thanks for dropping in

All the dented heads and broken beds are nearly dead
inside my brain
And it's alright
All the games I play to keep my mind off what's at stake have me buying it
But I'm cheating
I know you probably wanted me to cry
But it's a good a time as any for goodbye Bested by the worst of you I'm losing to my thirst for you again
And your drunkenness
Is all this empty clamour more than you had planned on taking in
I can sympathize
