Blue For You

Widowmaker

Come and sit beside my baby No, no, no I don't need anything more Move a little closer baby Lord, lord, lord I'm in heaven for sure Speak softly whisper in my ear I'm so lonely And you're not really here.

I'm so blue for you What else can I do? So in love with you Lord, lord, I'm so blue for you Heart is broke in two Black'n' Blue for you Lord, lord, lord I'm so blue for you.

Gotta have your loving darling No, no, no Please don't leave me in the cold Warm me by your fire baby Lord, lord, lord I'm the rock you gotta roll I'm tired come and lie down here with me I must be dreaming Cause you're where I long to be.

First you want me Say you need me Then you tell me I'm a fool Then you love me Then you leave me Oh you're breaking all love's rules Well I know I'll love again But I'll never love anyone more.

Speak softly Whisper in my ear I'm so lonely And you're not really here.
