Box Full of Letters

Got a box full of letters, Think you might like to read Some things that you might like to see, But they're all addressed to me

Wish I had a lotta answers, 'Cause that's the way it should be For all these questions, Being directed at me

I just can't find the time To write my mind The way I want it to read

You'll come back again And I'll still be your friend

I got a lot of your records, In a separate stack Some things that I might like to hear, But I guess I'll give 'em back

I wish I had a lotta answers, 'Cause that's the way it should be All these questions Being directed at me

Just can't find the time To write my mind The way I want it to read

You'll come back again, And I'll still be your friend

I can't find the time To write my mind The way I want it to read

Just can't find the time To write my mind The way I want it to read
