

A Simple Beautiful Truth

Wild Beasts

Woman we don't need to pretend anymore
It's real, it's real!

Let your loving be the proof I can tell that it's the truth
That feel, that feel!

There's a beauty out there you just gotta know where
It's there, yeah!

Let your loving be the proof I can tell that it's the truth
That feel, that feel!

Yeah gunna show you where
A simple beautiful truth

Sober dream thought I buried you too deep
Yet, yet!
You come blinking in the sun I can tell that you're the one
That feel, that feel!

A simple beautiful love is worth countless triumphs
When it's real, when it's real
Let your loving be the proof I can tell that it's the truth
That feel, that feel!

Yeah gunna show you where
A simple beautiful truth
