

Celestial Creatures

Wild Beasts

The heavens hang heavy on you tonight
But I'm a bit cold, your only hope
The only thing to keep your guts from spilling out

Handsome woman, what you want with me?
You're a deity and I'm nothing
But my beliefs
Yeah, they take me there, towards the [?]
Where the heavens are
Where the angels sip champagne

And every fiber remains so alive
We are celestial creatures

What you want with me?
You're a deity and I'm nothing
But my beliefs
Yeah, they take me there, towards the [?]
Where the heavens are
Where the angels sip champagne

Every fiber remains so alive
Oh these are blessed times, wooo hooo
We are celestial creatures, ooh
Every fiber remains so alive
Oh these are blessed times, wooo hooo
We are celestial creatures, ooh

These are blessed times that we're living in
Down here on earth all is forgiven...
