

Oh Yeah

Wild Flag

Oh yeah, I thought you were my friend
But now I'll never think again
Your eyes naturally in disguise, in disguise
When the rain down
You took off, out of this town
And in the end there was no end
Just fireflies in your eyes

And now we swing from the vines
Early man in future times
We were living in an abandoned pool
Kind of primitive but made to live
Oh yeah
Oh yeah
Oh yeah
Oh yeah
