

Shadow

Wild Nothing

Oh why is your hate so addicting and I
Well I wonder where you've been
I don't see you often

I try to feel something for you
But that's all that I can do
Give my shadow to you

Do you ever see me at night
And does it please you at all
When you head on the wall

I'd go with you if you asked me to
But we wouldn't get too far
Two strangers in the dark
