

He's Alright

Wild Orchid

He's Alright, my baby is alright
He knows what I like naturally
My man is alright. Yeah he's got it right
My baby's alright alright with me

There are men, then there are men
And mine is a Mercedes Benz
He's so strong, yet so gentle
He always knows the right thing to say
Even on my bad days
Makes no demands, he understands
He's not afraid to day (I love you)
Maybe he don't live (in a mansion)
He don't drive (nothing fancy)
But he' revs me up, the lovin' that
He gives to me is enough

He's Alright, my baby is alright
He knows what I like naturally
My man is alright. Yeah he's got it right
My baby's alright alright with me

In a crowd, he stands out
He's a gentleman without a doubt
He's so smooth, yet so sexy
He's versatile and that really gets me
If you know what I mean
He's mystical, logical
He brightens up the (darkest day)
Maybe he don't wear (Valentino)
But he don't care (because he knows)
That what's inside is better than anything money can buy

He's Alright, my baby is alright
He knows what I like naturally
My man is alright. Yeah he's got it alright
My baby is alright, sexually
So right that it makes me go, yeah, yeah

He got the
The goody goody goody goody good lovin'
Feels so nice when we're kissin' and huggin'
He got the goody goody, the good lovin'
Keep ma bell dem ringin'

And when him touch mi body an it
Feels so fine
Ina mi heart ana
Ina mi mind
Whenever I'm in danger
He's my knight in shining armor... do it
