Mind: a curtain hiding the fool Blind men can't see they're doomed Now my sanity fades to dark fantasies Jester laugh will show us our fate

Heart: Sparkling stars outside
Sad cold and dead inside
What could I call home in this treachering world
Jester laugh will lead us to sleep

Growling behind me the beast swallowing innocence Growing within me, sealing destiny and forget what really matters $\ensuremath{\mathsf{rs}}$

Bring the sunrise to life A world where feelings aren't lies

Open my eyes to believe again I can't breath within your darkness My love won't burn under your rain

Trapped in the night, the moon, my witness At last I found it, Insanity
Blame your shadow for kneeling before me
Inside your eyes I'm your tears
I'm the blade, you're my hilt

Want to dive in my dreams Here love blossoms on the hills

Open my eyes to believe again
I can't breath within your darkness
My love won't burn under your
Reign of terror shall end
With my tears
I'll find one way leading to four gates
That lost way I can't forget
It's hard to make a choice with wide opened eyes
